The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday April 25. to Saturday April 29. 1738.

Berlin, April 29, N. S.

A Few Days ago an Expreſs paſſed through this Town, going to Potzdam from Schwedt, with the News, that the Margravine of Schwedt, their Pruſſian Majeſties fourth Daughter, had been ſafely delivered of a Princeſs. On Wedneſday laſt died here Major General Count Truchſes: He had been ſeveral Times employed as his Pruſſian Majeſty's Miniſter in Poland and Saxony, and was Colonel of a Regiment of Horſe, which has been given to Colonel Wartenſleben, a Son of the late Felt Marſhal Wartenſleben. Prince Czartorinsky, Vice Chancellor of Lithuania, paſſed through this Town a few Days ago in his Way to Dreſden.

Hague, May 6, N. S The King of Pruſſia deſigning to ſend from Berlin a large Train of Artillery with Stores of Ammunition to Weſel, it was ſent down the Elbe to Hambourg, in order to be embarked there for this Country; and the Pruſſian Miniſter here had deſired of the States a Paſſport for the Conveyance of it through their Territories. But we have received Advice, that Part of that Train, conſiſting of 30 Pieces of Cannon, having been accordingly ſhipped at Hambourg, in its Paſſage from thence has been ſtopped at Gluckſtadt by the Daniſh Governour there, on account of ſome Neglect or Want of Formalities, ſuch as Requiſitorial Letters, Paſſes, &c. which are expected when Artillery paſſes by a Fortreſs. According to the Advices from Hungary, the Turks are making Incurſions as far as the Suburbs of Belgrade, and threaten to beſiege that Town. The States of Holland are to aſſemble To-morrow.

Whereas by an Order of Council dated the 28th of November 1737, all Lords Privy Counſellors and Officers of His Majeſty's and Her late Majeſty's Houſhold, were forbid to put on any Eſcutcheon of Arms, or Arms painted, on their Coaches or Chariots for the firſt ſix Months; which Term expiring the 21ſt of May next, It is His Majeſty's Command, that they do cauſe them to be put on at that Time, or as ſoon after as conveniently may be.

Whitehall, April 21, 1738.

Whereas it has been repreſented to His Majeſty, That on the Fourteenth Day of this Inſtant April, in the Evening, a great Number of People aſſembled themſelves in the City of Briſtol, in a riotous and tumultuous Manner; that the Magiſtrates of the ſaid City having cauſed the Proclamation for preventing Tumults to be read, they diſperſed at that Time, but aſſembled again the next Morning in the ſame riotous Manner: And whereas an anonymous Letter was, on the 18th Inſtant, taken up in the Court of the Dwelling-Houſe of Nathaniel Day, Eſq; Mayor of that City, threatning him with Miſchief, in caſe he ſhould moleſt any Perſon on Account of the ſaid Riots: His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concerned in the ſeveral Crimes above-mentioned, or either of them, is pleaſed to promiſe his moſt gracious Pardon to any of the ſaid Offenders that ſhall diſcover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices in the ſaid Riots, or in writing, ſending, or dropping the Threatning Letter aforeſaid, ſo that they or any of them be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

Briſtol, April 15th, 1738.

Whereas a Riot was the laſt Night committed on the Weare in this City.

This is to give Notice, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall diſcover any of the Perſons concerned in the ſaid Riot, ſo as he or they ſhall be convicted thereof, ſhall receive the Sum of Ten Pounds; to be paid by the Chamberlain of the ſaid City, on ſuch Conviction: And if any Perſon or Perſons, concerned in the ſaid Riot, ſhall diſcover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices, ſo as he or they may be convicted thereof, ſhall receive the like Sum of Ten Pounds on ſuch Conviction, to be paid as aforeſaid.

Day, Mayor.

Briſtol, April 18th, 1738.

Whereas a Letter, without Date or Name, directed to the Right Worſhipful Nath. Day, Eſq; Mayor, was the laſt Night, or early this Morning, thrown into the Court of his Dwelling Houſe in Queen Square, addreſſed in the Words following, viz. "May it pleaſe your "buſie Worſhip, to be ſo kind not to trouble your "ſelf about what you call a Riot on the Weare as much "as you do; if your Worſhip doth moleſt any Perſon, "we that did break the Windows of that wicked Crea"ture's Houſe, will certainly do you the ſame Kind"neſs and ſomething worſe the firſt Opportunity, we "doth not queſtion will be in a little Time: We think "it Juſtice to ſerve her ſo, and your Worſhip worſe, "if you doth not hold your Peace.

"And, I pray, accuſe none wrongfully; if you "doth, it ſhall be — Fire to you."

The Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Briſtol, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſon or Perſons concerned in writing or throwing the ſaid Letter into the Court aforeſaid, do hereby promiſe a Reward of Fifty Pounds to any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall diſcover his Accomplice or Accomplices, ſo as as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, to be paid out of the Chamber of the said City.

Hollidge, Chamberlain.

And, as a farther Encouragement, I do hereby promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds more to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid; to be paid upon the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders.

Nathl. Day.

Whitehall, April 22, 1738.

Whereas an Incendiary Letter, dated at Laugharne, the 7th of March last past, was sent by the Post, directed to John Philipps of Kilgetty, Esq; Carmarthen, and received by him on the 9th of the same Month, threatning, That in Case he stood Candidate for Common-Councilman of Carmarthen, he should not enjoy it a Year in Peace, and warning him to take Care lest his Brains be knock'd out, his Blood licked by Dogs, his House set on Fire, and his Friends murthered: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Author or Authors thereof, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as they or any of them may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HARRINGTON.

And as a further Encouragement, the said John Philipps does hereby promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds; the Mayor and Common-Council of the County Borough of Carmarthen do offer a Reward of Thirty Pounds, to be paid out of the common Stock of the Corporation; and the Rev. Mr. Anthony Rudd, of Carmarthen, doth likewise promise a Reward of Twenty Pounds; which said Sums of Fifty Pounds, Thirty Pounds, and Twenty Pounds, shall be severally paid to the Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, upon the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders, by us,

John Philipps,
Jon. Newtham, Mayor.
Anthony Rudd.

General Post Office, Feb. 22, 1737.

Whereas the Post Boy, bringing the Bristol Mail to London, was set upon and robbed by a single Person on Foot, Yesterday about Seven o'Clock in the Evening, at the End of Sunning Lane, two Miles on this Side of Reading. The Postmaster General thinks proper to make it publickly known, that whoever shall apprehend the Person who committed this Robbery, will, upon Conviction, be entitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, besides the Reward by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen; or if any Accomplice in the said Robbery shall make a Discovery of the Person who committed the Fact, such Accomplice will be entitled to the said Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and also have his Majesty's most gracious Pardon. The Person who committed this Robbery, is described to be a middle-siz'd Man, had on a great Riding Coat, with a whitish Velvet or Plush Cape; he carried off the Horse and Mail, which Mail contained the following Bags.

Stamp-Office, April 21, 1738.

Whereas by an Act of Parliament of the 5th and 6th of King William and Queen Mary, a Duty of 5 s. is imposed upon every Piece of Paper or Parchment upon which any Licence or Certificate of Marriage should be written or engross'd; and by three several subsequent Acts of Parliament of the 6th and 7th, and 7th and 8th of King William, and of the 10th of Queen Ann, a Penalty of 100 l. is inflicted on any Parson, Vicar or Curate, or other Person in Holy Orders, who shall marry any Persons without Publication of Banns of Matrimony, or without Licences first obtained for the said Marriage, one Moiety thereof to his Majesty, and the other Moiety to him who shall inform and sue for the same. And whereas a Practice hath of late prevailed for Persons in Holy Orders residing within the Liberties of the King's Bench and Fleet Prisons, and elsewhere, to marry Persons without either the Publication of Banns, or any Licences obtained, and to give Certificates of such Marriages without the said Duty thereon, to the Diminution of that Part of his Majesty's Revenue, as well as the Ruin of many Families: And the Commissioners for managing his Majesty's Stamp Duties being determined, as far as in them lies, to suppress the said Practice, have commenced several Prosecutions against Persons residing within the Liberties of the King's Bench and Fleet Prisons, for the said Offence: And that no one may pretend Ignorance herein, the Commissioners have thought fit to give this Notice, that they will for the future prosecute with the utmost Severity, all such as they shall receive Information of, to have married without such Banns or Licence, and to have granted such Certificate without the said Duty, contrary to the Directions of the said several Acts.

Wine Licence Office, April 28, 1738.

All Persons owing or engaged for Arrears of Rent for Wine Licences, or whose Licences are expired, are hereby required to take Notice, That if they do not pay their said Arrears, and renew their said Licences with all Speed, they will be forthwith prosecuted for the same. And whereas His Majesty's Commissioners of Wine Licences have received certain Information of divers Persons presuming to retail Wine without Licence, and to whom Letters have been sent advertising them of the Penalties incurred thereby; These are also to give Notice, that unless such Persons do speedily apply themselves to the said Commissioners, the Laws in such Cases made and provided will be forthwith put in Execution.

Christ's Hospital, London, April 29, 1738.

Whereas John West, late of London, Scrivener, and Frances his Wife, both deceased, did in their several Lifetimes convey to the Governors of Christ Hospital, London, divers Estates in and about the City of London, and elsewhere, for the Annual Payment of Five Pounds to poor Men and Women of the Age of Fifty Years or upwards during their Natural Lives, and directed, that their Relations by Consanguinity should have Preference: The Governors of the said Hospital therefore hereby give Notice, That if any Person or Persons related to the said John West, or to Frances his Wife, as aforesaid, who stand in Need or desire the Benefit of the said Charity, that they do in Forty Days from the Day of the Date hereof, apply themselves to the said Governors, at the Compting House in the said Hospital, and make out their Relation to the Donors, otherwise they will be excluded the Benefit of the said Charity. Wm. Brocket, Clerk.

The Committee for Letting the Bridge-house Lands, give Notice, that they intend to Lett by several Leases the following Lots, viz. No 1. Three small Tenements situate in Horshoe Court, in the Parish of St. Olave Southwark, late in Lease to Mr. Joseph Storey. No 2. A Wharf or Building Yard, with its Appurtenances, commonly commonly called the Merchants Yard at Deptford, lately in the Poſſeſſion of Richard Chappell. And that the ſaid Committee will ſit in the Council-Chamber of the Guildhall, London, on Wedneſday the 3d Day of May next, at Four of the Clock in the Afternoon, to receive Propoſals for the ſame: Of which more particular Information may be had at the Comptroller's Office at the Bridge-Houſe, Southwark.
